Biography

Drupon Thinley Ningpo Rinpoche

Drupon Thinley Ningpo Rinpoche is a teacher of Buddhist philosophy and was well-respected as the monastery disciplinarian for several years at Jang Chub Ling, the Drikung Monastery in Dehra Dun, India, which is the seat of His Holiness Drikung Kyabgon Chetsang Rinpoche and the Drikung Kagyu Lineage.

Drupon Thinley Ningpo Rinpoche also accomplished the traditional three-year retreat, during which he studied and practiced the Five-fold Path of Mahamudra and the Six Yogas of Naropa. He was awarded the title "Drupon," or "Retreat Master," based on these accomplishments. Thus he is accomplished in the philosophy of sutra and tantra.

Drupon Rinpoche is the retreat master of the Phuntsok Dargye Ling Retreat Center in Fredrick Maryland. Khenchen Konchog Gyaltsen Rimpoche brought him to the US in 2001 to be one of the two resident lamas at the Tibetan Meditation Center in Fredrick, Maryland. He has continued Khenchen's schedule of retreats and teachings there and has taught at other Drikung centers throughout the country. He is a wonderful teacher with that familiar engaging sense of humor who also emanates vast kindness and compassion.
