Biography

Khenpo Sherab Ozer Rinpoche, born in 1966 to a nomadic family, entered Drong Ngur Monastery, in Nakchu, Tibet, in 1985. In 1992, he began eight years of study in India and Nepal at the feet of many learned masters from both the Old and New Schools (Nyingma and Sarma), culminating when he was awarded the title "Khenpo" during the Drikung Kagyu Snake Year Teachings in 2000. During his time in Nepal, he spent two years as a teacher at Chogyi Nyima Rinpoche's monastic college and its sister college for foreigners.

In 2001, Khenpo Sherab Ozer was invited to the United States by H.E. Garchen Rinpoche. He has been asked by H.H. Chetsang Rinpoche and H.E. Garchen Rinpoche to stay in the West specifically in order to teach the Bodhicaryavatara. In May of 2004, Khenpo Sherab Ozer established the Buddhist center Drikung Namgyal Ling in Tucson, Arizona, where he currently resides.

Khenpo Sherab Ozer has devoted his life to serving the Drikung Kagyu lineage. He is known for his crystal-clear, uncompromising presentations of the authentic Dharma and the loving care with which he guides his students. He is an accomplished scholar and a skilled teacher, author, singer, songwriter, and sewer. He maintains an active teaching schedule in America, Europe, and Asia.

These most profound teachings are hosted by the Ratnashri Sangha of Tampa Bay, a religious, non-profit corporation in the State of Florida with a 501 (c) (3) designation with the U.S. Treasury.
